:-) Thank you! Looking forward to connecting soon, and hopefully we can get a win-win out of all this! Regardless of the outcome, I have thoroughly enjoyed and been impressed by the process you have driven.

Hi Michael. I have an update on our timeline from Allison- are you free to connect today?

Hi Lisa, sure. I'm very open up until 4pm CST

Okay let me call you now.

Hi Michael, I hope you've been well and are enjoying the good weather. I noted that we have a meeting today but unfortunately I don't have any updates to share. Alison has further delayed her org announcements, given some other priorities behind the scenes and we're still in the same position I'm afraid.

I wish I had more to share, but will come back to you the moment I do, of course.
Thank you for your continued patience and interest in us.
Lisa

Hi Lisa, I didn't have us down for a meeting, but thank you for being proactive and the update. I know you shared it would be a few weeks before an update so my expectations are calibrated there. I did send Allison an LinkedIn inmail, to stay on her radar and open up a line of communication. As always, I appreciate your great communication and updates. It's now hit "too hot" in Austin so lots of pool days with the kids :-).

Sorry, not a meeting but a reminder for me to touch base with you. And yes, still need more time. Glad you reached out to Allison too. Stay cool!!

:-) Honestly, you have been THE ONLY recruiter/retained firm that has communicated with me transparently and frequently. While this doesn't say much for the rest of our industry, it speaks volumes for you and your work. You are large part of why I'm still so engaged with this opportunity. I hate be so cynical of the Recruiting industry, but being on this side of the desk has opened my eyes to so much.

Hi Lisa, I just wanted to send a quick note to stay on the radar. We are about to head to the lake to celebrate the 4th with some friends. I hope you get a chance to disconnect and enjoy some downtime as well! ~Michael

Hey Michael, so nice to hear from you and good timing for your text. Allison has just announced her org plans and we're opening the role this week for internal applications. We do have an internal who'll be coming into the mix so will go through that interview process over the coming few weeks. More to come. Have a wonderful July 4th holiday!

Thanks Lisa! 🇺🇸

Hi Michael, it's been awhile and I wanted to touch base and connect again. Are you free for a call today/this week?

Hi Lisa. I am free now if you are?

If not, I have some pockets free tomorrow morningish or early afternoon. Thanks!

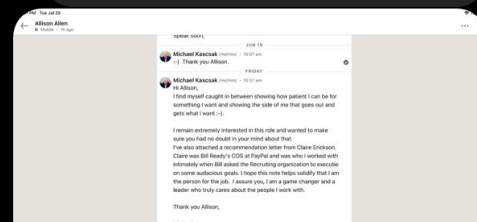

Now is great, give me one min

Thanks so much for the call today. I really appreciate the chance to connect and I remain optimistic. Here is a copy of the note I sent Allison last Friday along with the LOR from Claire, who was Bill Ready's COS while I was at PayPal. We return from Costa Rica on the 13th, but feel free to ping me if you have any updates while we are away. Especially if it's good news :-). I hope you are enjoying the rest of your summer, Michael
